REMINISCENCES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

That the people who built the early business of Redwood City, were possessed of that quality of grit which seldom fails to win success in the end is shown by the enterprise of Hanson, Ackerson & Co., then one of the leading general merchandise firms of the town. Three ties, in the extension of their business among the farming community which was rapidly taking the place of the lumber producers as the business backing of the town, that firm had built an extensive warehouse for the storage of hay and grain, only to see the structure destroyed by fire before they had completed one season's profit from their enterprise. After each disaster they seemed to have bobed up smiling and ready to again tempt fate with a larger and better building of the same character. So again in the early summer of 1878, we again find this firm ready for the accommodation of their customers with another warehouse, still more extensive than any of the previous ventures. This time the new warehouse was located on the west side of the creek, and consisted of a building 208 feet in length by 100 feet in width. Some idea of the size and cost of the building may be gained from the statement made at the time that 230 thousand feet of lumber was required for the foundation of the building, while the erection of the structure from the foundation required an additional 425 thousand feet, and that 250 thousand shingles were required to cover the building as a protection from the rain.

On the 25th of June, 1878, Joseph Kreig, one of the men who laid the foundation of the chief manufacturing industry of Redwood City, passed to his final rest. Deceased had long been regarded as one of the substantial citizens of the County, one of the men who believed in doing things. He it was pioneered the way for the establishment of the tanning business in this City. From his knowledge of the then resources of the county, he became convinced that Redwood City offered superior advantages in that line of buisness, and in the early part of the the year 1864 he purchased a site and erected the buildings for the first tannery to be established. For ten years, he conducted this buisness, meeting with good success, but at the end of that time found his health failing, and yielding to the demands of physical weakness, sold out his buisness and retired from active work in the hope that rest would restore his vitality. This hope proved elusive, and after nearly four years of suffering death came to his relief. Mr. Kreig was but little more than 43 years of age at the time of his death.

While there was less boisterous excitement manifested then usual, there were several quietly enthusiastic celebrations of the Fourth of July held throughout the county for the year 1878. Especial attention was given to the day by the people of Pescadero, Halfmoon Bay and La Honda, as well as at Redwood City. In none of these places was there any specially unusal occurrences, the celebrations taking their customary forms of processions and dances.

Here is a little item from the Times and Gazette of July 13th, 1868, that may interest about as many people now as it did at the time of its first publication: "Married, in Redwood City, July 17th, 1878, by Michael Walsh, Justice of the Peace, George West of Redwood City, to Miss Annie Fisher of San Francisco.

All persons wishing to take the civil service examination for Rural carrier, will apply at once to Postmaster Price for information and application blanks.

HEAVIEST RAINFALL HERE IN MANY YEARS.

The heaviest flood that Redwood City has experienced in may years occurred early Saturday morning when the flow of water was so high that it swept the streets and entered some of the stores in the central part of town. Street Superintendent Dickey was abroad with a force of men during the night, anticipating a freshet, and when the flood came at midnight he was able to prevent serious damage. Merchants, whose stores were near the creek, were aroused, and making their way through a foot of water, that was then sweeping down Broadway, reached their places of business and succeeded in placing much of their goods out of harm's way. On the north side of Broadway the water stopped at the entrances, but on the south side Maloney's Market, Tuchsen's real estate offices, Lamb's furnishing store and several others had several inches of water upon their floors. The southern portion of town was several inches under water. On Saturday work at Beeger's tannery was shut down, as the streets about it were impassible. The usually well-kept pavements of Broadway were covered with mud, gravel and debris.

Another flood was looked for at noon Saturday, when the tide was again full, but the water stopped within a few inches of the bridges.

The rainfall from Friday morning to Saturday morning was 3.70 inches, making a total for the season of 10.15.

Blackburn Has a Friend.

Although Dr. Blackburn, supervisor of the Fifth township, was indicted by the San Francisco Grand Jury for graft before the last general election, he received the largest majority ever given a supervisor of that district and here are some of the reasons for which the voters stood by him.

When he took office, that township was $5,000 in debt which had been incurred by the supervisor proceeding him and which was paid by Blackburn during his term.

He built nine concrete bridges and kept 75 miles of mountain road in good condition. In fact, in that district part of this road is as good as can be found in any county.

He now has $1,544 to his credit in the county treasury yet to be expended.—Coast Side Comet

Atkinson Writes a Book.

F. W. Atkinson, formerly owner of the Burlingame Advance, and prior to that managing editor of the Alameda Daily Argus, has recently completed a book which is soon to be issued by a New York publishing house. The title of the volume is "The Disintegrating Church," and the book discusses, among other things, the relation of the minister to the business world, from the standpoint of a business man, and the social, philosophical and economic phases of what the author believes to be a disintegration of organized religion.

Some of the Reasons Why.

The Bachelors will give one of their enjoyable dances at the gymnasium Saturday evening. Among a score or more of reasons why the party should be well patronized are the following:

There will be excellent music, obliging floor managers, a fine floor, plenty of room, an assured good time, nice punch, and lastly it will be money well spent to aid the gymnasium which in itself is the best reason of all why you should buy tickets from the boys. Let all do their share to make the dance a success.

The local band is being reorganized with a view to increasing its capacity. The manager, Charles Stutz, would like to hear from those having musical talent who would like to join. He can be found at Hull Bros'. hardware store.

WITH AN INSURANCE POLICY IN HAND

CURB POLICE BARBARITY.

The bill introduced in the Legislature to prohibit the use of the "third degree" and the keeping of prisoners in "detinue" by the police officials of the State should certainly be passed and promptly approved by the governor. The measure is a much needed step in the direction of enforcing the dictates of ordinary justice and humanity at the hands of peace officials who too often stop at no method, it matters not how inhuman, to secure the conviction of one whom they have concluded to suspect of the commission of a crime

At its best, the method is but a slight refinement of the old barbarity of the rack. If one half that is told is true, prisoners are often subject to almost inhuman torture in the hope of forcing from them some sort of a confession. In the same way men whom the police choose to suspect of crime are kept for days in close confinement without a charge of any character being placed against them, and even denied the privilege of conferring with friends or the supporedly inalieuable right to employ council. An then if in the end the police have found it impossible to force from the unhappy man some sort of a "confession," or perhaps have decided to seek for a fresh victim, the poor wretch is turned loose without recourse.

This practice is certainly a violation of every conceived right of justice. Under our law every man has the right to a presumption of innocense until at least some proof of guilt has been shown, and certainly has the undoubted right to decent treatment at the hands of the authorities. If a man should not be required before a court of justice to testify against himself, then he should certainly be protected from the barbarities of the police inquisition.

Woman's Club Hears Lecture.

The Woman's Club held a very successful and entertaining meeting Thursday afternoon. C. C. Henion, the secretary of the Merchant Marine League delivered an able and patriotic address to the women. He showed how the American flag, as far as it applies to the Merchant Marine, has almost been swept from the seas. The speech was very instructive. Mrs. Gish entertained those present with her sweet voice. Others also contributed their talent to make the occasion a very enjoyable one..

New Orleans Shows Strength.

By a vote of 9 to 6 New Orleans was recommended yesterday by the House Committee on Exposition as the site for the Panama Canal Exposition in 1915. The real fight for the exposition will come up in the house next Tuesday when California is expected to win.

The lecture, "In darkest Africa," at the Baptist church, which was postponed from last Friday evening because of the storm, was given on Monday night to an appreciative audience. It was pronounced the best thus far given in the course. The finely colored views and brief descriptions were informing and interesting. The next lecture will be given Feb. 3d, subject, "India in Transition."

BUSINESS BEFORE THE SUPERVISORS

Petition for Incorporation of North End Municipality is Under Consideration.

The supervisors met last Monday and transacted more than the usual amount of routine business.

The regular order of business was suspended and the bids for the San Mateo High School bonds and petition for the incorporation of Daly City were disposed of.

The following bids were opened for the highschool bonds:

Wakefield & Garthwaite Co.—Par and accrued interest to date and premium of $825.73.

Barroll Co.—Par and accrued interest and premium, $1285.

Bank of Italy—Par and accrued interest and premium, $341.

Jas. H. Adams—Par and accrued interest and premium, $1251.

Sutro Company—Par and accrued interest and premium, $1340.

E. H. Rollins & Sons—Par and accrued interest and premium, $1851.

Blymire Co.—Par and accrued interest and premium, $1412.

N. W. Halsey & Son—Par and accrued interest and premium, $887.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, the bid of Rollins & Sons being the lowest, was accepted by resolution.

School Superintendent Cloud presented a petition signed by E. H. Denman and others, representing seven families and eighteen children, of school age, asking that a new school district be formed from a portion of San Pedro district to be known as Tobin district.

Mr. Cloud stated that he had approved the petition. It was ordered that it be taken up for hearing at the next meeting.

Attorney Harry E. Styles presented a petition signed by 75 residents of the first township, asking for the incorporation of Daly City. The territory embraced in the proposed city includes Hillcrest, Mission-Street Tract, Vista Grande, numbers one, two and three, Wigginton tract, Knowles lands, the Abbey, Crocker and Crocker Estate Tracts, Westend Homestead and Concordia Land Co., and extends from School and Price streets, near Colma, northerly to the County line.

Mr. Styles stated that there were within the proposed city at least 2900 people. He said that the residents desired to avail themselves of incorporation for the purpose of acquiring better streets and roads, water, lights, sewers and other utilities.

Attorney E. D. Knight also addressed the board on behalf of the petitioners. He urged the board to act promplty and give the petitioners needed relief.

The chairman reminded the petitioners that there were nearly two miles of road in the district that would have to be kept in repair.

Brown also believed that some guarantee ought to be given to keep the Mission road in first class condition. Styles assured the supervisors that the roads would be kept in the best condition. Three witnesses were sworn to establish the legality of the petition. The petition was laid over until February 6th.

Joe Bevis, the poundmaster of the first township, asked to be paid a salary. The matter was referred to the district attorney who reported that the officer was rentitled to fees only.

Anna Pickett, Jerry and Ann Glass, indigents, of the second township were allowed aid in the sum of $8 per month.

Mrs. Caroline Jockel was allowed $6 each for her two half-orphan children; Mrs. Nellie Wyant was allowed a similar amount for each of her three half orphan children, and Mrs. Mattli was allowed the same amount for her three children.

These latter payments are really a state charge as the money will in due time be returned to the county.

Public Administrator Plymire reported the disposal of the effects of certain deceased persons, among which was an item of the payment of a burial charge. The report was not accepted as the public administrator is permitted to make payment only to the treasurer.

Treasurer Chamberlain reported having realized $150.95 from the sale of the effects of certain deceased persons.

Dr. Brooke, the county physician, reported in reference to the physical condition of John Pinkham. He said he had not fully recovered from the effects of his broken leg. Blackburn moved that his allowance of $45 a month be continued to April 1st. The motion was lost.

W. T. Ford was granted permission to transfer his liquor license from San Bruno to Tanforan.

McEvoy was given full power to act in restoring the Newell bridge over the San Francisquito creek that was damaged by the recent storm.

The committee, consisting of Surveyor Neuman, District Attorney Swart and Supervisor Casey, appointed to report on the water way on San Mateo avenue at San Bruno, was given further time to pursue its investigations.

The chairman of the board and the surveyor were given further time to prepare a survey of the courthouse grounds preparatory to having them improved.

The final report of Donald MacKenzie, the courthouse superintendent was read. Among other things Mr. MacKenzie reported that he had made a contract with John Kerr to remove the trees at the rear of the courthouse which had been cut into wood—ten cords— and stored in the basement of the courthouse. He recommended that wires be arranged on the ceilings of the supervisors' room and the superior courtroom, to improve their acoustic properties.

Mr. MacKenzie reported that the vault in the treasurer's office would be ready for inspection Thursday. The board decided to examine it at the next meeting.

A conference was had with two of the courthouse janitors with a view to making some arrangements by which the cleaning of the building might be improved, but no conclusion was reached.

J. J. Shields, the under sheriff reported that the jail was unfit for habitation.

The chairman and district attorney corroborated the statement of Mr. Shields and a motion was made by Blackburn, and seconded by McEvoy that the sheriff make such repairs and improvements as were necessary, using the jail inmates in the work where possible.

McEvoy was authorized to cancel the public phone in the courthouse and the one in the basement of the building.

District Attorney Swart stated that there were many private sewer systems in the county that were not under the jurisdiction of the board. These sewers were being broken into and connections made by property owners and it is possible that in some instances they have become a menace to public health. It would be within the power of the board to appoint an inspector of such sewers who would receive his pay for his services in fees from the owners.

Mr. Swart reminded the board that since the town of Easton had become a part of Burlingame the bills for the Easton Lighting District would henceforth be a charge against the corporation.

The matter of employing a stenographer for the District Attorney was discussed at length, Mr. Swart suggested that a purchasing agent might be hired who could also look over the county claims in connection with the work in his office. The board promised to give the matter its urgent attention.

Casey was given permission to employ the surveyor to definitely locate the San Pedro road in his district.

Attorney Archer Kincaid requested the board to take some action regarding the judgment that had been recovered against the county on behalf of Pierce & Company for roadwork.

The district attorney stated that he would require until the next meeting to look into the matter. He would probably ask the court to set aside the judgment.

The claim of Robert E. Bowie was referred to the district attorney.

The chairman refused to sign the claims of W. H. Underhill and P. P. Chamberlain for $22 for expenses in going to San Francisco to count the county's money.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC GIVES NEW FIRE STATION SITE

City Council Gets Location for Hose Company on County Road

Evidently the meetings of the City Council are again assuming their place as one of the star attractions, as at the meeting last Monday evening, the room was unusually well filled with spectators when the meeting was called to order by Mayor Merrill, with all the trustees present. The special feature of the meeting was another decicive step forward in the preparationfor the extensive plan of street improvement which has been planned for the coming summer. From present indications there will be no further delays in this important work.

The United Gas and Electric Company asked for and was granted permission to open Washington street, from Broadway to East Marshal street for the purpose of making repairs in leaky gas mains.

The regular monthly report of the city officials were presented by Clerk Plump and were approved.

The report of Treasurer F. K. Towne shows a deficiency of $1755.24 in the general fund. It was explained however that this apparent shortage was due to the necessitities of the system of book keeping, rather than a lack of coin in the city's strong box, and that it will be possible to furnish ample funds for the conduct of business.

In the storm sewer fund there is a balance of $12,534.70; while in improvement district No. 13 there remains unexpended $19,387.48; and in district No. 14 a banance of $6,-228.87.

According to the report of Marshal J. P. Coleman, the collections for the month were as follows:

Water rates	$446.80
Water connections	40.00
Liquor licenses	2500.00
Miscellaneous Licenses	116.00
Sewer connections	20.00
Improvement Dist. 13	73.61
Roosevelt avenue Dist.	279.35
Total	$3475.76

The work of McGarvey, Hess & Kreiss in macadamizing Hopkins avenue from Duane to Broadway and Elwood street was accepted and the contractors allowed a claim of $1303.60.

Chairman Merrill has succeeded in clearing the way for the erection of the needed additional fire house on the County road. As a result of his conference with the railway officials he presented a lease for the desired site from the officials of the Southern Pacific of the site on the railroad right of way selected. The lease calls for the nominal rental of $5 per year.

City Engineer Neuman submitted complete plans and specifications for the improvement of the streets in local improvement district No. 15, the specifications providing for an oiled macadam roadway. According to the estimate of the engineer, the total cost of the improvement will be $10,689.90. The report was accepted and laid over until next Monday evening for further action.

The attention of the council was called by Street Superintendent J. C. Dickey to the damaged condition of the bridges due to the effects of the recent storm, some of which were in urgent need of repairs. As the natural influence was that some rather extensive repairs would be required the trouble was referred to the street committee for investigation.

At the request of Chief Winter it was decided to procure a supply of rubber coats for the use of the firemen and Chairman Merrill was given authority to make the purchase.

Chairman Merrill suggested that as several corrections were being made in the plates of the city map, preparatory to printing the additional supply of maps ordered, it would be well to decide upon a name to be given the new street made by the so-called extension of Phelps street. As the new street does not extend from a junction with the old streets at either end, it was decided best to give it an entirely new designation, and after some discussion the unanimous sentiment was in favor of Center street, and by this appelation the new street will hereafter be known.

In order that no time should be lost in the preparation for the street improvmeent plan it was decided to hold an adjourned session next Monday evening.

A large live oak tree on the brink of the San Francisquito creek, a short distance from the bridge on the county road toppled over during the recent storm and fell across the stream on the Stanford property. The tree was an old landmark that withstood the rains and storms for many winters. There is an old tradition to the effect that a noted bandit was hung from one of the large branches of the oak in the early fifties. He had robbed a stage near San Jose and securing a large sum of money rode off. He was shortly pursued by a posse of citizens and overtaken near where the town of Palo Alto now stands. The man was given short shrift by the irate citizens. He was dragged to the tree and strung up and left hanging there for three days when the body was cut down by passengers in a stage that happened by. The bandit was a Mexican who had committed daring robberies in Santa Clara and Monterey counties. His name was Morales and for many years he terrorized the people of these localities.

Beware the So-Called "Rubber Roofings"

There are countless substitutes for the genuine Ruberoid which are advertised as "rubber roofings." Beware of them. For rubber in a roofing would rot in a single summer. "Rubber roofing" is either a fraud, on its face, because it contains no rubber; or it is a roofing so poor as to be almost valueless. The genuine Ruberoid contains no rubber.

Ruberoid roofing is waterproof, like rubber. It is flexible, like rubber. But the resemblance ends there.

For, unlike rubber, it remains waterproof and flexible when exposed to the sun, the rain, the heat, the cold, the air.

Rubber rots after slight exposure. Ruberoid retains its life and durability under the severest weather conditions.

Rubber decomposes rapidly under the action of fumes and gases and acids, while Ruberoid resists them. Ruberoid roofing has, in fact, been used to line vats in which acids are kept.

Ruberoid contains no rubber. It contains no tar. It contains no asbestos. It is not an asphalt roofing.

Protection Against Fire

Ruberoid is almost perfect protection against fire. Hot coals thrown on a Ruberoid roof will set fire neither to the roofing nor to the sheathing underneath.

Ruberoid is tasteless. It is odorless. It can be used on roofs from which drinking water is gathered.

And because of these wonderful properties there are today 300 or more substitutes to deceive you.

These substitutes have names which sound like Ruberoid. Before they are laid, they look like Ruberoid. But none of them can copy the vital element which gives to Ruberoid its properties. No other maker of roofing can use the exclusive processed Ruberoid gum.

This processed gum, too, is the basis of Ruberine cement, which goes with every roll.

By means of Ruberine cement, you can join the seams and edges of the roofing together, and make a one-piece roof—sealed against leaks—sealed against the weather.

Ruberoid can also be had in attractive colors, suitable for the finest residence. These colors, Red, Brown, Green, are not painted on the roofing—they are a part of it. They do not wear off or fade.

RUBEROID
(REGISTERED IN U. S. PATENT OFFICE)

Be sure to look for this registered trademark which is stamped every four feet on the under side of all genuine Ruberoid. This is your protection against substitutes which many dealers brazenly sell as Ruberoid. Ruberoid is sold exclusively by us. We will tell you more about Ruberoid when you send for the free book.
